

The Republican.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20th, 1879.

West's Liver Pills cure Indigestion.

CITY AND COUNTY.

—George Morningstar, of Walnut, has returned to Columbus, Ohio.

—The Temple of Honor of this city will give a grand supper at their Hall Saturday night.

—Rumor says that E. Wheeler and D. E. Snyder will form a partnership for the purpose of buying and shipping grain.

—For thirty days we will give the New York Weekly Atlas, a forty-eight column paper, and the Republican one year for $2.40.

—John Williamson, who has been for some time connected with the dry goods establishment of Richard Williamson in this city, returned to New York Saturday.

—Don't fail to attend the lecture at Centennial Hall, Saturday evening. Father Toohy is worth listening to, and the proceeds go to help St. Michael's Academy.

—The Plymouth Good Templar dramatic troupe, accompanied by the silver cornet band, visited Bourbon Saturday, and rendered the drama "Rum or the First Glass" to a crowded house.

—Come and hear Francis Murphy, the great apostle of temperance, next Thursday evening, at the Opera House. All persons opposed to total abstinence are especially requested to come.

—One of our subscribers at Tynar City sent us a postal card Tuesday which read as follows: "Don't shoot. I will surrender, will be in Plymouth soon and make all right, don't stop the paper."

—Miss Sophia Wile left this city Sunday evening for New York. During her ten months residence in Plymouth she formed a large circle of friends by whom she will be very much missed.

—Simon Myers, one of the old time subscribers of the Republican can in last week and spent a short time in talking about the past and present. It is to the old standbys like him that we in great measure owe our success.

—F. A. McMaisters has opened a new store at Walnut, and shows his good judgment by enrolling for the Bretnick. Our friends and enemies too, if we have any, will find McMaisters just the kind of a man they want to trade with.

—H. Corbin & Co., last Saturday sold tickets over the old reliable Wabash road to Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado, to the amount of $436. They are agents for Union Pacific lands in southern Nebraska for Marshall and Kosiachko counties.

—A young lady about 18 years of age, daughter of George Boice, is said to have left home rather mysteriously last Friday night, but we understand that she is in the city and claims to be able to give a satisfactory explanation of the matter.

—R. J. Gates, who recently removed to this country from Ohio, subscribed for the Republican and pays in advance. He will make a good citizen and will vote the Republican ticket, as we hope many of our wayward Democratic friends will, at the next election.

—We were pleased this week to make the acquaintance of Mr. Gunkle, formerly of Dayton, Ohio, who is now in the law office with John S. Bender, Esq. Mr. Gunkle is a pleasant, intelligent young man, and we believe another good citizen has been added to Plymouth's population.

—Equinox, of Inwood, informs us that Miss Belle Singleton is very sick with bilious fever, and an infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams, died of lung fever Feb. 15; and a couple of wagon loads of Inwood's temperance workers organized a union at Mr. Olive Church, last Friday night.

—S. D. Taber, one of Plymouth's most popular grocery men, J. W. Davis of Bourbon, Robert Barnhill of Argos, Peter Try of Polk, W. S. Stevenson of Center, S. L. Carney of La-Paz, John Van Kirk of West, and Hugh Brownlee of Plymouth, are among the citizens of this county good and true who have renewed for the Republican this week.

—The paper which a few weeks since declared that the "Nationals" were born in fraud and are held together by bribery" declares in its last issue that it is the official "organ of the National Greenback party of the thirteenth Congressional district," and in another paragraph in the same column tells its readers that the "Nationals are in cahoot with the Democratic party."

—A large number of the intimate friends of Rev. J. B. Henry paid their respects to him, at the residence of Mrs. Yockey, last Friday evening, by a most pleasant and agreeable surprise. He was presented with a few very useful and kind remembrances, during the evening, which was passed most enjoyably by all present. Mr. Henry desires to return his sincere thanks to all participating.

—James Lilley, of Bourbon, United States mail agent on the P. R. W. & C. rail way stopped off at Plymouth last Thursday morning, and took occasion to give the Republican office a pleasant call and substantial encouragement of a nature that will help pay the bills. Mr. Lilley was suffering from a cold and weary from having been up all night, but pleasant and talkative as Uncle Sam's servants almost always are.

—Look out for an original story in next week's REPUBLICAN, and read the poem in this number written for us by "Lulu."

—Miss Alice Webber, of Chicago, has been in this city a few days canvassing for "Bryan's Library of Poetry and Song." It is a magnificent book.

—John Jacoby leaves for Nebraska Monday, to help improve an eighty acre lot that he bought last fall. He will probably be gone a couple of months.

—J. H. Bennett, of the firm of Tribby & Bennett, left on the noon train, Tuesday, for Greenfield, Ohio, to see his sister, who is so sick as not to be expected to live.

—For the benefit of our readers in British America, California and other distant places, we state that a heavy snow storm prevailed in this section of country yesterday.

—Our thanks are due Dr. Oenfer for the valuable letters he is sending us from Indianapolis. His description of our State Charitable Institutions should be read by all.

—Oysters and cold supper at old Blue Ribbon Hall, Saturday evening Feb. 23d. Proceeds for the benefit of the Temple of Honor. Everybody invited. The M. C. Guards will attend in full uniform.

—We have a good town and all the stores we need; but we need more work shops and more manufacturing establishments. We hope all our business men and others who ought to be interested, will attend the meeting to-night at C. Whitmore's rooms. Mr. Jackson will be there. Read proceedings of last meeting in another place, in this paper.

—W. M. Nichols, of Indianapolis, a former proprietor of the REPUBLICAN, called on us Tuesday. He was called to this city by the death of his sister, Mrs. Metcalf. Mr. Nichols has been for several years employed on the Indianapolis Journal. Since he left the REPUBLICAN it has changed hands many times, but has never failed, we believe to make its weekly visit to its readers; and we are glad to know Mr. Nichols, like the REPUBLICAN, is now prospering.

—As Jacob Hoban, of Argos, was crossing the L. P. & C. Railway last Sunday night on his return home from this city, two strange men made their appearance. One seized his horse by the bridle, and the other seized him by the clothing attempting to drag him from the horse, not succeeding in this, the ruffian struck him with a knife, cutting through his clothing and grazing the skin. Mr. Hoban succeeded in making his escape, leaving the cuff of his heavy ulster overcoat in the hands of the ruffian, it having been torn entirely off in the struggle. Neither of the men spoke a word, and no clue can be found as to who they were; but their object must have been robbery.

—Our Senator explained Monday to his brethren of the Senate why he felt called upon to utter language when discussing the drainage bill that several newspapers had characterized as profane. After telling them that he was not in the habit of using profane language in his speeches, he said he made use of this language: "Damn such legislation, and the names of the men or persons who first attempted to inject it into the laws of this state ought to be damned to infernal infamy." He borrowed this from the great Master himself—using the words "damn such legislation" in a legitimate sense; that it should be condemned beyond all possibility of forgiveness; lost beyond the power of being found; put out of sight beyond all possibility of recovery; just as the Master himself says, "he who believeth not on me shall be damned." It was the farthest thought from him to express the least irreverent idea, or to utter the least possible profanity. Of course no reader of the Republican will think for a moment that Senator Reeve intended to use profane language.

Francis Murphy! Francis Murphy! Thursday evening, Feb. 27th. Come from the east, the west, the north and the south, and hear the great blue ribbon temperance reformer.

Attention, Company A M. C. Guards! General inspection Friday evening, 7:15 o'clock, sharp. All members are requested to be present.

J. O. KERN, Organist. J. O. KERN, Organist.

Notice. The Auditor of Marshall county will offer for sale on the 4th Monday in March 1879, all land mortgaged to the Common and Congressional school funds, managed by said county, on which the interest was due and not paid on the first day of January 1879. Interest must be paid before February 27, 1879, to save costs and penalty.

McKELVY & Co. will commence their Excursions to Nebraska on the 25th of Feb. 1879, and continue to run them every week, leaving Plymouth every Wednesday morning, and arrive in Lincoln at noon next day. Apply to them for rates, maps and general information.

Twenty five Square, Oblong. Clipped or Round Corner Beveled Edge cards printed for 30 cents by the Crown Card Co. Read advertisement. They print all styles of cards.

MAXKUCKEE.

BY LILLIE.

Beautiful lake, queen of the West,
Sparkling and glistening thou art;
Enchanted by woodlands that come to thy shore,
And seem to lament for the days that are o'er.

Here the Indian chieftain, in days that are gone,
Made love to his maiden and wooed her with song;
Here were lighted his camp-fires, and here, from
thy side,
Marched forth the grim warrior in his war-paint
and pride.

Those days have departed, thy people have gone—
Hushed forever the echoes of the wild hunter's
song;
They have gone to the westward to return not again,
But have left thee thy name as remembrance of them.

Beautiful lake, as we stand by thy side,
In fond admiration, our hearts swell with pride;
And with transports of joy we'll the echoes awake,
And proclaim thee to be the most beautiful lake.
Plymouth, Ind., Feb. 14, 1879.

MARMONT.
ORA PRO NOBIS.

Mrs. Falice is dead.
John Miller is sojourning in Marmont.
Miss Mary Duddleson says a dozen of her schoolers are sick.

James Gann came near being killed last Wednesday, by a falling tree.

Samuel Bissell, Mrs. Sprague, Mrs.
Johnson and Mrs. Jerry Allen are sick;
fears are entertained that the two last named will not recover.

As a fisherman, Peter Keller regards himself a flector. He took out a large number of fish bass last week. Harman Uhl is second best. "Simon Peter" was no better.

Monopoly is the rage now-a-days, and opposition is said to be the spice of life—even the churches have become imbued with the spirit. The M. E. church, at Marmont, and the United Brethren, at Sickman's school house, are now running opposition meetings, both of which are acquiring momentum as they go.

WALNUT.
BY DAN.

Walnut still alive.
One firm on the decline.
Hoop shavers on the strike last week.
School for four weeks yet.

Mr. James Cochran, of Summerset, Ind., is visiting here.

Mr. J. W. White, of Lagrange county, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Snow.

Mr. John Bishop, who removed from here to Clarinda, Iowa, has returned and gone to blacksmithing here.

We noticed Dr. Woolley, of Warsaw, on our streets. He has been visiting his son in this vicinity.

Miss Jennie Snow and mother, are visiting friends here at Rochester.

Nimrod McPaul is going to Piottown.
May success follow him.

James Reppeto intends leaving us to act
as agent of Manning & Co., in the purchase of timber. We are sorry to see one of our best citizens and most earnest workers depart. We hope his brightest anticipations may be realized.

F. A. McMaisters, of Inwood, has brought a nice stock of goods to this place and is doing well, as he has no competition now.

Messrs. Reppeto and Morningstar, the former merchants of this place, have had their store closed by the Sheriff. This is rather bad for the boys, and shows what the credit business will do. Syl Beals, of Plymouth, has control of the old store
and goods.

BOURBON AND BREMEN WOODS.
BY WOODS BOY.

Considerable stringing around, but not much done just at this time.

There are a few boys in this section that talk like they would like to spend the remainder of their lives in schooling
teachers, but no one need be scared.

We had lots of fun at the surprise party at Adam Fisher's last Friday. Adam has started west and expects in the future to make his home in Kansas. For 30 years he lived on the farm near Bremen which he recently sold, and scores of old friends and neighbors wish him success in his new home.

Abseonded, A. Shank. His creditors and a son-in-law are now engaged in a suit to try the rights of property.

B. Tripp has placed his youngest child in the care of Mrs. DeHaven. His wife requested him, on her death bed, to keep the three children together, but after a month's trial, he thinks it best to secure a home for his baby for a time at least.

W. B. Macomber is running his saw mill this winter. He talks of going to Kansas next spring to improve a piece of land that he bought sometime since. He will leave his family here, and his oldest son will have control of the farm here in his absence, assisted by Mrs. Macomber who is a woman of superior judgment.

Will Myers is failing in health, and it is feared that consumption has taken too firm a hold to be easily removed, though it is hoped that with the return of warm weather his health will improve.

TYNER CITY.
OCCASIONAL.

Daniel Smith, aged forty four years, an old resident of this township, was buried at the Blissville cemetery last Sunday.

There is considerable controversy
among some citizens as to who has the worst cold.

Wm O'Keefe, of Plymouth, was here
last week on a Dunn ing expedition.

M. A. O. Packard was practicing law
before Esquire Shaffer, last week.

There will be a big crowd go from here to Plymouth to hear Francis Murphy, the great temperance orator.

At the temperance meeting, last Saturday evening, Senator Reeve was highly eulogized for introducing a bill which, if passed, would materially lessen the evils of intemperance. Senator Reeve has shown by his action in the Senate that he is representing the people.

Those parties who are engaged in the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors in our village will, we understand, be called up to the captain's office to settle for their misdoings.

L. G. Dillman, commenced operations last Monday. Farmers can now bring in the logs with the assurance of having them sawed.

The Greenbackers have reorganized their club at this place. Charley Murray was elected President.

It is reported that I. M. Smith will move to Inwood.

The blue ribbon boys are raising money to purchase an organ.

John Plake is going to emigrate to Kansas, to "grow up with the country."

Dr. Simpson reports several new cases of lung fever. The Dr. is kept busy almost day and night.

It is estimated that only about one third of the farmers of this township take a newspaper. In this day of cheap newspapers, this is indeed startling. How parents can expect to bring up their children to be useful members of society without furnishing them good papers and books to read, is past our comprehension.

NORTH TOWNSHIP.
SCAPE GOAT.

Mr. Pluckey is very sick with consumption.

A child of Marion and Sarah Cummings is very sick.

Carl White had a narrow escape from being killed last Sunday. While playing on the ice he fell striking his head on a pole, how long he was insensible he cannot tell.

Our trustee was called upon last week to decide who was running one of our schools. He decided in favor of a young gentleman named Whipple, and sent two large boys home for an indefinite period.

Many of our citizens received Valentines last Friday and Saturday. It caused a great deal of merriment from some and a great deal of profanity from others.

We are informed that one night recently a man that does not love his neighbor
as himself went to his neighbor's house and was caught in the act of trying to take something that did not belong to him; but all the neighbor lost was a gilt of beans
and a dram of powder that lay behind the beans.

James Swihart is the jolliest man in the township, but for a few days past he seems to be absent minded. If you ask him who discovered America, he will say
"a boy." Who was chief commander of the union army? "A boy." Who is the governor of Indiana? "A boy." He has a boy at his house four days old, but he can't make us believe that boys have all ways run the government.

The REPUBLICAN is eagerly sought and read; those who are not subscribers borrow it from their neighbors.

GREEN TOWNSHIP.
OLD NED.

Mrs. E. Newhouse is ill.
Corn is apparently scarce in this township.

A. Allen has been ill, in consequence of which his school has been delayed one week.

A literary society meets at Whippoor-will Tuesday evening of each week.

A little girl of W. R. Moore's came near dying of congestion of the lungs recently. At present she is slowly recovering.

Rev. Jones will preach at the Gilead church next Sunday, at 8 p. m.

Quarterly conference, at Wolf Creek,
Saturday and Sunday last. Presiding
Elder Uiter was in attendance.

Temperance meeting at Whippoorwill
school house Friday night of each week.
Old men, take notice.

The Dunkards held a meeting at the Olive school house Saturday and Sunday last.

A number of our schools will close
within the next two weeks.

The temperance Union, at Jordan, tenders many thanks to Messrs. R. M. Williams, Wm. Allen and Jas. Lowry, of Argos, for their able assistance.

E. A. Newcomb, has returned from Rochester, where he was visiting his sick brother, Wm. Newcomb, the present Fulton county clerk.

By the way, we attended the Greene township teachers' institute on the 15th inst. The afternoon exercises were devoted to selecting the best method of extracting the cube root. Prof. Langen-baugh, Wm. Wirt, Jasper Atkinson, declared the factoring method best, which they maintained with but little opposition by the rest of the teachers present. We are of the opinion that, if the majority of teachers would display a little more stamina, such old teachers as Langen-baugh, Atkinson and other would not sail away with them so easy. [Our correspondent gave the proceedings of the institute in full, but as they appear in an other place we omit them.—Ed.]

WEST TOWNSHIP.
G. M. GRATT.

Rev. W. G. Cook preached a very impressive sermon at the German Baptist Church, last Sunday. Subject: "The Ten Virgins."

Dr. J. J. Hamilton is at home. He said it cost him $70 to help rob a grave of a "stiff." He contemplates practicing medicine the ensuing summer.

Wm. Moreau will deliver a temperance lecture at the Burr Oak Chapel next Sunday evening.

Hiram Beam is going to move to Michigan, where he expects to work at his trade
—blacksmithing. He is a good citizen, and we hope he will meet with success in his new home.

Mrs. Crill came near shuffling off this mortal coil, the other day. He said "he did not care if she did die, that she was not much credit to him any how."

Isaac Shoemaker has traded his property to Wm. Richie. Mr. Shoemaker thinks of going to Kansas.

Rev. Hiram Overmyer preached at the Amish Church last Sunday.

M. Stutsman has sold his farm to a party
from Lagrange county.

Silgo has a new shoe shop.

George Foss is the boss skunk hunter of the county. He captured six the other day.

Donelson is doing a rushing business in hoop-poles, and they also have a nice lot of logs in the mill yard.

Protracted meetings will be held at the German Baptist Church, beginning on March 15th. Able ministers are expected to be present.

N. Kaufman was called to Elkhardt county to attend the funeral of his brother Benjamin, who died from a sprained or broken back. Mr. Kaufman says his brother was chopping a tree off that had been blown out by the roots, and when chopped off,
the stump returned to its original position with such force as to throw him into the cavity, where the roots of the tree struck him and broke his back.

We thank Mr. "Scape Goat" for his new receipt. As for tight boots, we neglected ordering our boots last fall until the weather was so bad that the shoemaker could not work out of doors, so we were obliged to purchase the largest pair
we could find in Plymouth, and they did pinch our toes a little too much. As to religion, we have tried to keep the precepts from our youth up, and as to reading the county paper without paying for it, oh, my! we could not think of committing such a sin.

The joint institute between West and Union townships was one of the best ever held in this township. The Union township teachers are wide awake and understand their business, as is evinced by the way they handled the different subjects.
The programme was disposed of as follows: Advanced Reading, I. O. Zechel; Map Drawing, A. W. Chew; Pronoun
and Analysis, S. B. Varnock; Analysis and Compound numbers, Henry Hamilton; Physiology, G. A. Neuberger; History, Charles Starnum; Primary Grammar,
Miss Duddleson; Advanced Orthography,
J. Oberlin. An excellent dinner was prepared for all present, and the teachers disposed of it in equally as masterly a manner as they did the subjects in institute.

Popular.

So popular are Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, that few kitchens can be found where they are not used; and their introduction to any household is the advent of new pleasures at the table. Dr. Price has succeeded in procuring flavorings
peculiarly delicious.

An Honest Medicine.

Of all medicines advertised to cure any
affections of the Throat, Chest or Lungs,
we know of none we can recommend so highly as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough, Colds, Asthma,
Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Hoarseness, Tick-
ling in the throat, loss of voice, etc. This medicine does positively cure, and that
where everything else has failed. No
medicine can show one half so many positive and permanent cures as have already
been effected by this truly wonderful remedy. For Asthma and Bronchitis it is a perfect specific, curing the very worst
cases in the shortest time possible. We say
by all means give it a trial. Trial bottles sent free. Regular size $1.00. For sale

DIED.
Of brain fever, Feb. 14, 1879, at his residence in Union township, Miami county, Rev. Stuart Bailey, father of W. E. Bailey, of this city.

Mr. Bailey, was born in Batavia, N. Y., Feb. 20, 1812, and emigrated to Miami county, this State, in 1837. He was for several years a resident of this county, and a part of that time a citizen of Plymouth. His genial and social qualities secured to him a host of friends in this city and county, who will regret this sad visitation of Providence.

Feb. 15, 1879, Rev. R. son of Franklin, and Elsie Wright, of North township, aged seven months and twenty-nine days. Funeral services by Rev. W. M. Wicks.

Ever, darling thou has left us,
We have said the last good bye;
Now the golden cord is severed,
And our hopes in ruin lie.

But we have a consolation
In the blessed promise given—
We may one day meet each other,
In the shining courts of Heaven.

Tuesday morning, Feb. 18th, 1879, Mrs. Arada Nichols Metcalf, wife of A. T. Metcalf, of this city. A resident of this city from childhood, known and respected by all, she will be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends. For some time it had been apparent that consumption had seized her, and she, since last October her decline had been rapid. The funeral yesterday was conducted by the Good Templars, of which order she was a member. Rev. Geo. A. Little preaching the funeral discourse.

Of lung fever, at LaPorte, Ind., Feb. 15th, 1879, Mrs. A. P. Reeve, mother of C. H. and J. S. Reeve, of this city.

She was one of the old settlers of LaPorte county, having lived there over forty years, and passed away after an illness of only four days, at the ripe old age of seventy-five. She will be missed by all who knew her. Her funeral services at LaPorte, this day at 2 o'clock, p. m., Rev. Kendall, of LaPorte, officiating.

affections of the Throat, Chest or Lungs,
we know of none we can recommend so
highly as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough, Colds, Asthma,
Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Hoarseness, Tick-
ling in the throat, loss of voice, etc. This
medicine does positively cure, and that
where everything else has failed. No
medicine can show one half so many positive and permanent cures as have already
been effected by this truly wonderful remedy. For Asthma and Bronchitis it is a perfect specific, curing the very worst
cases in the shortest time possible. We say
by all means give it a trial. Trial bottles

Of brain fever, Feb. 14, 1879, at his residence in Union township, Miami county, Rev. Stuart Bailey, father of W. E. Bailey, of this city.

Mr. Bailey, was born in Batavia, N. Y., Feb. 20, 1812, and emigrated to Miami county, this State, in 1837. He was for several years a resident of this county, and a part of that time a citizen of Plymouth. His genial and social qualities secured to him a host of friends in this city and county, who will regret this sad visitation of Providence.

Feb. 15, 1879, Rev. R. son of Franklin, and Elsie Wright, of North township, aged seven months and twenty-nine days. Funeral services by Rev. W. M. Wicks.

Ever, darling thou has left us,
We have said the last good bye;
Now the golden cord is severed,
And our hopes in ruin lie.

But we have a consolation
In the blessed promise given—
We may one day meet each other,
In the shining courts of Heaven.
